Orden DEF/4109/2006, de 28 de diciembre (BOE número 8, de 9 de enero de 2007).

Por la que se establece el procedimiento para el reconocimiento de la concesión de la Medalla al Servicio de la Política Europea de Seguridad y Defensa creada por la Unión Europea y se delegan competencias en esta materia.

El real decreto 282/2006, de 10 de marzo, por el que se establecen los requisitos españoles para el reconocimiento de la concesión y el uso de la Medalla al Servicio de la Política Europea de Seguridad y Defensa (PESD) creada por la Unión Europea, establece como requisito posterior a su concesión el reconocimiento por parte del Ministro de Defensa, a quien faculta para establecer el procedimiento para ello.

Por otro lado, las normas de la Unión Europea que establecen las modalidades de aplicación para la medalla al servicio de la PESD disponen que la entrega de las medallas concedidas a título póstumo o a personal repatriado será hecha por las autoridades nacionales pertinentes, por lo que resulta necesario fijar las normas de entrega para estas dos circunstancias.

Finalmente, con el fin de conseguir la mayor celeridad y simplificación en la tramitación del reconocimiento de la concesión de la medalla, se hace necesario acudir a la figura de la delegación de competencias, prevista en la ley 30/1992, de 26 de noviembre, de Régimen Jurídico de las Administraciones Públicas y del Procedimiento Administrativo Común, en el Jefe de Estado Mayor de la Defensa, autoridad que puede disponer de toda la información necesaria para adoptar la resolución final.

En su virtud y en uso de las facultades que me confieren el artículo 1 del real decreto 282/2006, de 10 de marzo, y el artículo 13 de la ley 30/1992, de 26 de noviembre, DISPONGO:

Primero. Procedimiento para el reconocimiento de la concesión de la Medalla al Servicio de la Política Europea de Seguridad y Defensa.

El reconocimiento de la concesión de la Medalla al Servicio de la Política Europea de Seguridad y Defensa por la participación en operaciones de gestión de crisis dirigidas por la Unión Europea (en adelante la Medalla), será conforme al procedimiento siguiente:

a) Se iniciará mediante la recopilación, por parte de los jefes de cada contingente, de las relaciones oficiales del personal militar y civil al que se le haya concedido la Medalla, conforme se vaya produciendo dicha concesión.

b) A su vez, el Representante Militar ante el Comité Militar de la Unión Europea, establecerá los contactos necesarios con la Secretaría General del Consejo de la Unión Europea para que ésta le facilite la relación oficial del personal español no encuadrado en ningún contingente nacional al que se le haya concedido la Medalla, conforme dicha concesión se produzca.

c) También podrá iniciarse este procedimiento mediante la solicitud del interesado o, en caso de que haya fallecido, de su familiar más allegado.

d) Las relaciones oficiales a las que se hace referencia en los párrafos a) y b), así como las solicitudes del párrafo c) serán remitidas al Estado Mayor de la Defensa por conducto reglamentario.

e) El Estado Mayor de la Defensa, una vez recibidas las relaciones oficiales y comprobado el derecho de los solicitantes, elevará propuesta de reconocimiento a la autoridad que tenga atribuida esa facultad.

f) La resolución de reconocimiento, en la que se hará constar la fecha de concesión de la Medalla, se publicará en el «Boletín Oficial del Ministerio de Defensa» conforme al artículo 1 del real decreto 282/2006, de 10 de marzo, por el que se establecen los requisitos españoles para el reconocimiento de la concesión y el uso de la Medalla al Servicio de la Política Europea de Seguridad y Defensa creada por la Unión Europea, quedando autorizado el uso de la Medalla a partir de esa publicación, con arreglo al artículo 2 de este mismo real decreto.

g) Publicada la resolución de reconocimiento de la concesión de la Medalla, se procederá a su anotación en la Hoja de Servicios de los interesados, haciendo constar como fecha efectiva la de la concesión por parte del Secretario General/Alto representante del Consejo de la Unión Europea.

Segundo. Entrega de la Medalla a título póstumo y al personal repatriado.

1. El Ministro de Defensa, o la autoridad en quien delegue, entregará la Medalla a título póstumo al familiar más allegado, en nombre del Secretario General/Alto Representante del Consejo de la Unión Europea.

2. El Ministro de Defensa, o la autoridad en quien delegue, entregará la Medalla al personal repatriado antes de haberla recibido en el teatro o área de operaciones, en nombre del Secretario General/Alto Representante del Consejo de la Unión Europea.

Tercero. Delegación de competencias.

1. Se delega en el Jefe de Estado Mayor de la Defensa la facultad de reconocer la concesión de la Medalla al Servicio de la Política Europea de Seguridad y Defensa que se otorga al Ministro de Defensa en el artículo 1 del real decreto 282/2006, de 10 de marzo.

2. Las resoluciones administrativas que se adopten en virtud de la presente delegación indicarán expresamente esta circunstancia haciendo constar en la antefirma la expresión «por delegación», con cita de esta orden.

3. Mediante acuerdo motivado de la autoridad delegante se podrá revocar el conocimiento y resolución de cualquier asunto comprendido en la presente delegación.

Disposición final única. Entrada en vigor.

2. There are two categories of CSDP medals:

a. "CSDP Service Medal for Headquarters and Forces" for personnel in the Crisis Establishment of Headquarters and Forces in the area of operation/mission who have served for at least 30 days uninterrupted.

b. "CSDP Service Medal for Planning and Support" for personnel in the Crisis Establishment of Headquarters and Forces outside the area of operation/mission who have served for at least 30 days uninterrupted or persons who have provided meritorious service in the interests of the Operation/Mission.

3. When a EU Operation/Mission is launched pursuant to Article 43 of Title V of the TEU, the area of operation/responsibility/competence delineating the EU's involvement is normally established and defined in the Council decision.

4. The above mentioned medals are awarded by the HR. The HR may delegate authority to the Operational Commander (OpCdr) / Civilian Operational Commander (CivOpCdr) to award the CSDP Service Medals in line with eligibility criteria. The OpCdr / CivOpCdr shall ensure that eligibility criteria are fully respected. The OpCdr / CivOpCdr cannot delegate this authority to subordinate Commanders. Under his/her own responsibility, CivOpCdr could only sub-delegate the management of the administrative activities to the Head of Mission, as better described below at para n. 16 and 17.

5. The HR remains the authority for awarding medals in exceptional cases.

6. In order to insure transparency the lists of personnel awarded with the CSDP Service Medals shall be forwarded by the OpCdr / CivOpCdr to the respective service of the European External Action Service (EEAS).

B. ELIGIBILITY

7. As appropriate, the HR shall communicate the designated theatre or area of operation/responsibility, and/or the EU-led CMO for which the Service Medal and service ribbon shall be awarded.

9. A person participating in different EU-led CMOs may be awarded more than one CSDP medal in the event that he/she participates in more than one CSDP operation/mission.

10. Out of the standard criteria described at para. 8 above, exceptions may be granted by the HR to award the CSDP Service Medal to personnel. These exceptions, based on Rules for the award of Common Security and Defence Policy (CSDP) Service Medals.

15 March 2016.

A. POLICY FOR THE AWARD OF CSDP SERVICE MEDALS

1. The High Representative (HR) has established Common Security and Defence Policy (CSDP) Service Medals. These medals may be awarded to all civil and military personnel who have participated in an EU-led Crisis Management Operation (CMO) within the scope of Title V of the Treaty of the European Union (TEU) upon evaluation of merit.
2. These Medals are awarded by the HR to personnel who are eligible in accordance with the criteria stated in these Rules. Full justification for the award and development of any citation, a task normally undertaken by a Mission/Operation Commander, should be included with any proposal; specifics may include, for example, the degree of personal risk; an act of gallantry; any meritorious achievement or activity performed beyond what might reasonably be expected. The HR may award any of these Medals directly as determined appropriate.
3. There are three categories of Medal; these are listed below in order of merit:
 - a. CSDP Medal for Extraordinary Meritorious Service. The HR is the sole authority for the award of this this decoration. It is the highest level of recognition for distinguished achievement and service, or for deeds of outstanding gallantry. It can be awarded to either military or civilian personnel for their service to an Operation/Mission conducted under the CSDP who have demonstrated outstanding valor or have provided extraordinary meritorious service with significant positive impact in the interest of the Operation/Mission. Its award is not subject to the eligibility requirements described below in terms of geographical area or minimum period of time. An evaluation board, titled the Awards Board, will review proposals received from an Operation Commander (OpCdr) or a Civilian Operation Commander (CivOpCdr) or from the Head of an EU Delegation through these Commanders. The Awards Board will review cases of particularly outstanding and deserving personnel, and decide whether a recommendation should be proposed to the HR. Any nomination for this decoration must contain the specifics and a detailed citation relating to the extraordinary service or activity performed.
 - b. CSDP Service Medal for Headquarters and Forces. This medal is to be awarded for personnel working in the Crisis Establishment (CE) of Headquarters and Forces. Qualifying personnel must be deployed in the area of operation/mission and have served for at least 30 days uninterrupted or 45 days aggregated service; this is in recognition for a long-standing period without demerit.
 - c. CSDP Service Medal for Planning and Support. This medal is to be awarded for personnel working within international/national organisations in direct support of an EU Operation/Mission either inside or outside the area of operation/mission; examples of such recipients include National Support Elements, EU Delegations, other minor Units in direct support of the Operation/Mission (ex. aircrew of supporting aircraft, forward based medics and logisticians, Unmanned Aerial Vehicle team and those engaged in training support activities). Qualifying personnel must have served for at least 30 days uninterrupted or 45 days aggregated service; this is recognition for a long-standing period without demerit.
4. When an EU Operation/Mission is launched pursuant to Article 43 of Title V of the TEU, the area of operation/responsibility/competence delineating the EU's involvement is normally established and defined in the appropriate Council Decision.
5. At the request of the Operation Commander (OpCdr)/Civilian Operation Commander (CivOpCdr), the HR may delegate them authority for the award the CSDP Service Medal for HQ and Forces or for Planning and Support (ref. para 3. b. and c.). The delegation should be in writing and particularly when a new operation/mission is launched. The OpCdr/CivOpCdr shall ensure that eligibility criteria are fully respected. The OpCdr/CivOpCdr cannot delegate this authority to subordinate Commanders. However, they may sub-delegate the management of the administrative activities to the Head of Mission (ref. paras 16 and 17).

6. In order to ensure transparency the lists of personnel awarded CSDP Service Medals must be forwarded by the OpCdr/CivOpCdr to the EU Military Staff (EUMS) or Civilian Planning and Conduct Capability (CPCC), as appropriate, using the template at Annex H.

B. ELIGIBILITY

7. The HR shall communicate the designated theatre or area of operation/responsibility, and/or the EU-led CMO for which CSDP Service Medals with their appropriate certificate and ribbon shall be awarded.

8. The following criteria must be met to be eligible for the award of a CSDP Service Medal:

a. A qualifying period of at least:

– 30 days of uninterrupted or 45 days aggregated service for CSDP Service Medal for Headquarters and Forces;

– 30 days of uninterrupted or 45 days aggregated service for CSDP Service Medal for Planning and Support.

b. To be awarded the CSDP Service Medal for Headquarters and Forces, entitled personnel must have served the qualifying period in the area of operation/responsibility.

c. To be awarded the CSDP Service Medal for Planning and Support, entitled personnel must have served the qualifying period inside or outside the area of operation/responsibility.

d. To be awarded the CSDP Service Medal, entitled personnel must not be found guilty of serious misconduct or crimes during the period of their duty under EU authority.

e. The qualifying period detailed at bullet 8.a above shall not be required for:

– posthumous awards;

– awards to personnel re-deployed due to service-incurred injuries or emergency evacuation.

9. Entitled personnel participating in different EU-led CMOs may be awarded more than one CSDP medal in the event that they participate in more than one CSDP Operation/Mission.

10. Exceptional Criteria. Where an Operation or Mission Commander deems that an award for personnel based outside of criteria described at para. 8 above is appropriate, exceptions may be granted by the HR to award the CSDP Service Medal to personnel. These exceptions, based on proposals of the OpCdr / CivOpCdr are sent to the Director General EUMS for military operations and to the Director CPCC for personnel assigned to civilian missions respectively, who will determine the necessity to convene either an Awards Board or make a recommendation directly to the HR. Only the HR has the authority to award medals for people who do not fulfill the eligibility criteria. In order to guarantee transparency, the above mentioned proposal must contain a specific justification.

C. ADMINISTRATIVE INSTRUCTIONS

11. CSDP Service Medals should be awarded before the completion of the recipient's tour of duty.

12. Organisation of CSDP Service Medal parades will be under direction and responsibility of OpCdr/Head of Mission.

13. All awards of the CSDP Service Medal shall be prepared by the OpCdr/CivOpCdr/Head of Mission in coordination, if appropriate, with national points of contact/senior representatives of each contingent.

14. After termination of the EU Operation/Mission no CSDP Service Medals will be awarded (unless the extraordinary meritorious award foreseen at para 3.a). Therefore, OpCdr/CivOpCdr must ensure that all personnel participating in the Operation/Mission and eligible for the CSDP Service Medals (ref. para 3.b and 3.c) are awarded a CSDP Service Medal prior to termination of the Operation/Mission.

15. The CSDP Service Medal shall be accompanied by a certificate authorising each recipient to wear the Service Medal (example of all the certificates are at Annexes B, C and D). The certificate could be issued directly by the HR or by the delegated authorities on behalf of the HR.

16. The OpCdr/CivOpCdr shall establish and maintain a register for personnel participating in the Operation/Mission. Such a register, in hard and soft copy, must be sent to the relevant Service of the EEAS when the CMO is terminated. For administrative purposes only, CivOpCdr could subdelegate the Head of Mission to maintain the register.

17. The OpCdr/CivOpCdr is responsible for the production of certificates and procurement of medals. For administrative purposes only, CivOpCdr could sub-delegate the Head of Mission the production of certificates and procurement of medals. The costs for production shall be charged to the budget of the concerning operation/mission.

18. Nominations by a Head of an EU Delegation for the award of CSDP Medal for Extraordinary Meritorious Service shall be proposed through an OpCdr / CivOpCdr to the Director General EUMS for military operations, and to the Director CPCC for personnel assigned to civilian missions respectively with a full justification in each case. The necessity to convene an Awards Board will then be determined by these authorities.

19. The Awards Board is to comprise Director General of the EUMS, Director of the CPCC, Director of the Crisis Management and Planning Directorate (CMPD) and Managing Director of EEAS MDR. The Board is to be convened if proposals are received from an OpCdr / CivOpCdr for the award of the CSDP Medal for Extraordinary Meritorious Service falling under para 3.a and could be convened if proposals are received from an OpCdr/CivOpCdr for the award of a CSDP Service Medal falling under para. 10. The Awards Board is responsible for the supervision of activities of the OpCdr/CivOpCdr in regard to these Rules, to provide them advice and to report HR accordingly. Unless directed differently by the HR, the Director General of EUMS is the designated person for receiving delegated authority by the HR in order to coordinate the activity of the Awards Board. In the event of the HR awarding a CSDP Service Medal directly, the HR will be advised by the Awards Board.

D. POSTHUMOUS AWARDS AND AWARDS TO REPATRIATED PERSONNEL

20. If personnel eligible for the award of a Medal in accordance with these Rules die before receipt it, their national authorities, upon authorisation from the relevant EEAS entity, shall make arrangements for the award the medal posthumously in accordance with their own administrative procedures.

21. If personnel eligible for the award of a Medal in accordance with these Rules are repatriated before receipt it, the national authorities concerned, upon authorisation from the Awards Board, shall make arrangements to the award the medal in accordance with their own administrative procedures.

E. PRESENTATION OF MEDALS, RIBBONS AND CERTIFICATES

22. The HR may delegate authority to award CSDP Service Medals to designated persons comprising the Awards Board, to the OpCdr/CivOpCdr or other relevant persons that the HR deems appropriate. The award ceremony shall normally take place as soon as possible after the award.

23. Where possible all CSDP Service Medals and certificates should be presented at a formal medal parade/ceremony.

24. Contributing States shall be informed about the administrative procedures in respect of the issue of CSDP Service Medals and relevant ribbons.

25. When appropriate, the CSDP Service Medal, the service ribbon and the certificate should be supplied to the national points of contact concerned. When necessary and once authorized by the relevant service of EEAS, the medal shall be presented by the national authorities of States participating in an EU-led CMO on behalf of the HR, in accordance with their own administrative regulations.

26. The Awards Board shall make proposals for the award of the CSDP Medal for Extraordinary Meritorious Service.

F. WITHDRAWAL

27. Only the HR may withdraw any of the medals awarded.
